Single Statehood.

Single Statehood is the only feasible plan in sight.

Oklahoma is in the push. Let the Indian Territory get in.

Oklahoma wants it and so should the Indian Territory.

Eggs are selling in Chickasha at twenty cents per dozen, and are nearly all imported from Oklahoma, Texas and Arkansas.

It only takes a glance at Oklahoma with its twelve years settlement to show the difference between it and the Indian Territory with more than double the number of years. Oklahoma today is feeding the Indian Territory with apples, grapes, butter, eggs, poultry, and like stuff. Why?

We have no intention to be boring a big hole with a little auger but if there is a man in this city who is in favor of agitating the question of single statehood for Oklahoma and this territory please come in and sign the roll.
The question is in the air, and Chickasha wants to be in anything for the good of the country.

The delinquent tax sale list is now a leading feature of Oklahoma papers, notwithstanding they declare that there is so much prosperity over there they can scarcely get around with it. The Oklahoma county list occupies nearly a full page of a 7 column paper and hundreds of the amounts are for sums of less than $1 and this is the real estate list only. Just think of being forced into a union with that sort of a thing.—McAlester Capital.

A good many towns and cities in the Indian Territory will be paying taxes in a very short time. No man will refuse to pay taxes when he sees any benefit coming from it, but to pay a tax without any returns, or to go scot free of taxation with the lack of protection, roads, schools and the franchise is an a domination only coveted by the partisans of the present conditions in the Indian Territory.

The New Century Club.

Met at the pleasant home of Mrs E N Miller, president Mrs C M Hollingsworth being absent the Club was called to order by Mrs E Hamilton, Tuesday afternoon.

Roll call responded to by quotations from Kipling. Minutes read and approved.

Miss Wibley added to the roll by secret ballot.

Mrs E Hamilton gave the Club in interesting talk on federation.

The Club has arranged to feder-ate at once.
The visitors present were. Mrs Jas Pettijohn, and Mrs L Bernard The following will furnish papers for next Tuesday: Mrs J O Smith on Louis XVI; Mrs H J Granlee on Marie Antoinette; Mrs R H Miller on Robespere, Danton, Marat; Mrs R L Peters on Charlotte Corday; Miss Kella Clark on amateur photography.
Having no further business the Club decided to meet with Mrs H J Granlee next Tuesday, November 20th.

The program was then taken up beginning with a very interesting paper on Louis XV, by Miss Kella Clark.

A paper on Voltaire by Mrs R H Miller was instructive.

Mrs W L Peters gave a short sketch of Bossuet, Bourdaloue, Fenelon, which was well received.

Mrs E Hamilton gave an instructive talk on Paris, with historic sites in France, and Kipling as an author.

President, Mrs Hollingsworth, prepared for the members to answer at the next meeting ten historical questions.

After completing the program we were requested to not be in a hurry to leave, and soon we knew the reason why. We were agreeably surprised by beautiful plater and napkins being passed around, then followed dishes of the most delicious salad, sandwiches, and pickles, then lovely cake, pineapple sherbet and coffee. This was more appreciated because it was out of the ordinary. The serving refreshments is not one of the Club features, however if a member chooses to do so there is no reason why she should not.
Then good byes and best wishes were expressed, all departing for their respective homes feeling better both intellectually and physically.

The Bazaar.

Everyone interested in work for the Presbyterian Bazaar is requested to be present at Mrs.
Leonards tomorrow, Friday afternoon. It is important that all should be present at 2 o'clock p m.

Messrs. J. H. Corneli, G. B. Robinson, Lon Walganote, W. H. Walf, A. W. Gates, Henry Lowenstein and N. J. Austin, who have been hunting near the city for about ten days are perhaps the jollies lot of gentlemen that ever struck this portion of the B. I. T. These gentlemen are merchants, traveling men and bookkeepers and reside in Illinois and returned today, after enjoying the hunt under the guidance of J. P.
Perkins. They took back with them three deer, 14 turkeys, 26 ducks, a lot of squirrel and several quail.
Come again, gentlemen.

The Bazaar.

The bazaar workers meet with Mrs. Leonard at the Maune, tomorrow Friday afternoon, at 2 o'clock sharp.

The colored people gave a cake walk in the building next to the White Swan Bakery last night, and the sign left on a box on the walk showed up for the late comer. The bottle was O. K. the few drops left were the color, and the odor was exhilarating, but insufficient in quantity. It was only an empty whiskey bottle.
If it had been full this item would have been suppressed.—Moral—
